

ANN ATKINS

Human Rights - The Cause For Each Generation

Program and book signing with Ann Atkins

“Courage is more exhilarating than fear and in the long run it is easier. We do not have to become heroes overnight. Just one step at a time...”
–Eleanor Roosevelt

The Revolution for Human Rights continues for each generation to forge into their world a place where social responsibility and justice engages everyone. Ann Atkins’ presentation takes the lives of Eleanor Roosevelt, Golda Meir and Marie Curie as a map to guide today’s audience on their own journey toward making the ideal of Human Rights more complete.

Ann’s appearances have included: National Press Club, Fox News TV, International Women’s Day in Washington D.C. as well as Universities, Library Lectures, Book Clubs and Civic Groups around the United States.

SUMMARY: Tracing small scale efforts that lead to world scale impact, Eleanor, Golda and Marie changed Society, State and Science. Hearing stories of their historical victories, setbacks and perseverance, audiences laugh, cry and nod in recognition at the struggles of any generation. Ann weaves the past to the present, showing the progress of human rights, to confirm the vision of these three women was not in vain. The Revolution for Human Rights is being realized.

Whatever the scale of your own rendezvous with destiny, the lives of Eleanor Roosevelt, Golda Meir and Marie Curie are a map for your own journey.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Ann has lived and worked in Korea, England and Germany as a counselor, college instructor and director of a family support center. Her master’s degree from Boston University encompassed studies at the University of Cambridge. Ann’s Flash History Biography series has reached international shores and covers: Eleanor Roosevelt ~ Unleashed, Golda Meir ~ True Grit, and Marie Curie ~ A Nobel Life (2016). Ann lives in Philadelphia and is currently working on a novel, Crucified (2017). For more information and to contact Ann go to: www.FlashHistory.com or Ann@AnnAtkins.com

“Only those who dare, who have the courage to dream, can really accomplish something.”
–Golda Meir

“Never to let one’s self be beaten down by persons or by events.”
–Marie Curie

